

THE PERDOMO FAMILY

Serving in Central America

January 2007

A Very Pleasant Trip to the USA

November was difficult for us because Alan was in the USA (Birmingham, Alabama) for almost the whole month and Dorys, Kristian and Kyrien stayed at home. We don't like to separate; we try to do things as a family. However, his visit was very special for several reasons:

1) Chuck and Amanda Lewis gave him a home and received him with love and dedication. He was not only well accommodated, but also encouraged and supported by these dear friends and partners. It was a privilege to be there, even during that special family time of Thanksgiving. "I felt like a member of the family."

2) As a family, we could feel the support of the family of World Reach in the central office. We are very grateful for their continuing help, orientation and service.

3) It was excellent to see brothers and sisters who have supported us faithfully in prayer and financially during this year. It was exciting to share with them our triumphs and struggles in our ministry. It is a privilege to be your ambassadors for the glory of God in Central America.

4) Alan could also meet other brothers and sisters from new churches that listened to our ministry vision and work for the cause of Christ. Thank you for your willingness to share that time and for encouraging him to keep working for the people of Central America.

We have no words to express our gratitude for the trip and for Alan's safe trip home. We experienced the fulfilling of the promise in Psalm 32:8: "I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye."

A Pleasant December Ministry

December began with pleasing activities: On the 2nd, we made a two-hour trip to San Pedro Sula for Alan to perform the wedding of two of his former SETECA students. It was a great time. Besides the celebration, we saw some very dear friends that we had not seen in a long time. How good it is to have a great family!

Then, on the 8th, the Honduran National Youth Convention started. During that weekend, we received the González family into our home. They came from San Salvador, El Salvador. Ceferino was one of my classmates at SETECA and was the main speaker of the event.

This convention had us a little tense because (after many years) it was the first. So, we didn't know whether or not the youths would support it. But, the response was thrilling! In spite of the cold weather and persistent rain, more than 700 youths came from all over Honduras. Can you imagine the scene? (There were some problems with the number of mattresses for the whole group to have a place to sleep.) It was a powerful and challenging time from the Lord. The subject was: "Intensely Christian". Alan had the privilege to speak about "Worship 24/7: How to Enjoy It".

We praise the Lord that 16 kids from our church were involved in this event. Paola, for example, was involved in the inscription and lodging committee. She worked hard that weekend. We ask you to pray for her because she has expressed her desire to be better trained to serve the Lord. Please pray that God will provide financially to send her to Guatemala City. She has been faithful in the youth ministry and other ministries in the church. We would be delighted to send her to study and support her in her process to be a better church leader.

An Awe-Inspiring Time

We pray that you had a joyous time as you celebrated God's mystery of the Incarnation with family and friends during Christmas. We want to share with you this Bible verse: "The Word became flesh and made His dwelling among us. We have seen His glory, the glory of the One and Only, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth." (John 1:14)

Happy 2007 from Honduras!
