Dear Friends,

May 2009

Most of you are not aware that our daughter, Esther, and her husband, Dan, separated 3 years ago after 25 years of marriage. But now we have good news to share! Esther and Dan began serious communication with each other some months ago and recently were reunited in marriage. We rejoice with them for the wonderful way that the Lord has worked in their lives. PRAISE THE LORD!

David, our son, and his wife, Kathy, enjoyed the fulfillment of a desire that they have had for many years – to visit the Island of Curacao where David grew up. We can only imagine their joy of sharing it all together – the churches, the people, the food, the ocean, the beaches and yes . . . even the cactus and lizards! What a great time they had! PRAISE THE LORD!

Recently, I received a phone call from Holland. It was from a young fellow that I had led to Christ thirty years ago. He called to say that after wandering in the world for all these years He had come back to the Lord three years ago and wanted me to know. PRAISE THE LORD!

Thank you for caring about us and our family. God bless you all.

In Christ,

Brom and Betty
